

TORTOISE DAY

SATURDAY MAY 10th 2008

This is the 7th annual Tortoise Day to be held in South Cheshire. It is organised by the Cheshire group of the British Chelonia Group (BCG). The BCG promotes the welfare and conservation of tortoises, terrapins and marine turtles worldwide

The 2008 event is again to be held at Woodford Community Centre, Chester Road, Woodford, Stockport, Cheshire SK7 1PS; on the A5102 (near Woodford Garden Centre). Ample free parking is available with wheelchair access to the hall.

Time                      10.00am – 4.00pm
Entrance fee            £1.00

The aim is to enable tortoise enthusiasts to meet and bring their tortoise if they wish for help and advice. The displays include plant foods for tortoises, crafts and gift stalls bric-a-brac, plants, tombola and many others. Refreshments are available. The special lunchtime lecture will be given by veterinary guest speaker, Kevin Eatwell BVSc (hons), DZoo Med (Reptilian) MRCVS. The title is 'Tortoises and Temperature' focusing on thermal requirements of chelonian.
