SELFIE QUIZ - ANSWERS!

So how did you do...? Upload your pics, we'd love to see! @LearnatCZ!

1. I'm hairy and love to hang upside-down; my colour varies from sandy to brown. I am one of the slowest animals at the zoo, once a week I come down from the trees for a poo. What am I?

Sloth

2. I'm a camouflaged, predatory, spotty big cat and live in tropical rainforest habitat. I live in the South American Pantanal; an elusive and secretive animal. What am I?

Jaguar

3. I live on an island called Borneo, they cut down my home so Palm Trees can grow. Orange and hairy and climbing up high; I am an ape, but which one am I?

Orangutan

4. I am pink in colour because of my diet; we make so much noise it sounds like a riot! We all flock together to carry out our dance, be on the watch for our next group performance. What am I?

Flamingo

5. I am a bird that swims underwater, my wings have evolved to be stronger and shorter. Often believed to live only on ice, I love hot beaches – this warm weather's nice! What am I?

Penguin

6. I'm the world's largest lizard, with a dangerous bite, full of bacteria and venom – I'll give you a fright! I don't breathe fire, which my name might suggest – any ideas? What have you guessed?

Komodo Dragon

7. Named after a bird, but actually a frog, I'm often found hiding under a log. For a frog I'm ginormous – I'm really a beast! But sadly my numbers have slowly decreased... What am I?

Mountain Chicken

8. I am the closest living relative to man, my scientific name begins with Pan. I'm clever and strong and live in a group – the collective name for us all is a troop! What am I?

Chimpanzee

9. I'm the tallest animal at Chester Zoo; the male of the herd is called Meru. Perfectly adapted for a life eating trees, and coping with heat up to 50 degrees! What am I?

Giraffe

10. I look like a lizard, but I'm actually not; I'm nocturnal, so you don't get to see me a lot. A 'living fossil', my species is old – from the time of the dinosaurs, or so I am told! What am I?

Tuatara
