

LEARN AT CHESTERZOO

RED PANDA QUIZ

How long is a Red Panda's tail?

Can you name 1 country you can find Red Pandas in the wild?

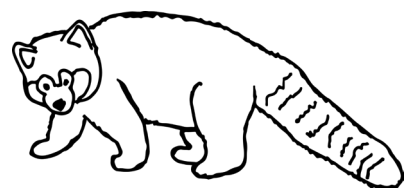

What is the word given to an animal that lives in trees?

How at risk are they? (Circle your answer)

Vulnerable

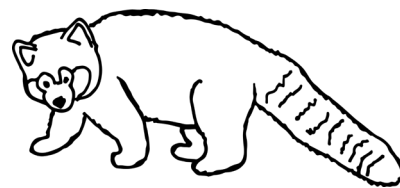

Endangered

Critically Endangered

LEARN AT CHESTERZOO

Did you know....

- Red Pandas have a false thumb? They use it to help them grip on to branches.
- Red Pandas are at risk from habitat loss, human-wildlife conflict, the illegal pet trade and poaching.
- Numbers of Red Pandas in the wild are estimated at fewer than 10,000.
- 98% of their diet is bamboo.
- Our two Red Panda cubs (1 male and 1 female) were born on 22nd June 2019?

How can you help to protect Red Pandas?

- Donate to Act for Wildlife – your donations help to protect animals in 30 countries around the world!
- Report any videos of Red Pandas being kept as pets you might see on social media.

LEARN AT CHESTERZOO

RED PANDA QUIZ

(Answers)

How long is a Red Panda's tail?

28-46 cm long!

Can you name 1 country you can find Red Pandas in the wild?

China, India, Myanmar, Nepal or Bhutan

What is the word given to an animal that lives in trees?

Arboreal

How at risk are they? (Circle your answer)

Vulnerable

Endangered

Critically Endangered

