

Live Lesson: Preventing extinction with Chester Zoo

During our 'Live Lesson: Preventing extinction with Chester Zoo' we have moments to interact. Use this worksheet to answer the questions as you watch along.

Big question

What factors might lead a species to become critically endangered or even extinct?

Quiz round 1 – True or False

- 1. 'Vulnerable' means that a species is at extreme risk of becoming extinct very soon.

True False

- 2. Wildlife corridors help connect habitats to each other.

True False

- 3. Grey squirrels were originally from Australia.

True False

- 4. Invasive species contributed to the extinction of the Dodo.

True False

Quiz round 2 – Multiple choice

1. Why are elephants important to their ecosystem?

- a. They clear paths in the forest that other animals use.
- b. They spread seeds through their poo.
- c. They are a part of the food chain.
- d. All of the above.

2. What is habitat loss?

- a. When animals move to a new place for fun.
- b. When an animal's home is destroyed or changed.
- c. When animals decide to live underwater instead of on land.
- d. When plants grow too quickly in a forest.

3. The Deserta snails were thought to be extinct because of...

- a. Habitat loss.
- b. The illegal wildlife trade.
- c. A deadly disease.
- d. A meteor.

4. Which continents do we find elephants in?

- a. Europe and Antarctica.
- b. Africa and Asia.
- c. South America and Australia.
- d. North America and Europe.

What question would you like to ask Chester Zoo?

